Prelude Judy Bailey

Call to Worship from Psalm 24

LEADER: The earth is the LORD’s and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein, for he has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers. Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.... Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is the King of glory?

ALL: The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle! The LORD of hosts, [Jesus Christ] is the King of glory!

*Hymn #198 Lift Up Your Heads, Ye Mighty Gates! (vv. 1, 4, 5, 6) words printed on back

*Congregational Prayer to be prayed in unison by all

O Lord our God and loving Father, you are from everlasting to everlasting. We confess that we have no right to stand before you, the one true and most holy God, because we are sinners by nature and by choice. We have come to express our praise and thanks for Jesus Christ, the King of glory, who came to seek and to save that which was lost. Accept our worship for the sake of your Son, may it rise before your throne as a sweet-smelling sacrifice. Send your Spirit upon us that we may be doers and not just hearers of your Word of truth. Amen.

Scripture Lesson Colossians 1:13

Sermon Rev. Cameron Anderson

Read and reflect on the following prayer (to be followed by silent prayers of personal confession)

Heavenly Father, we humbly ask that as we partake of this simple supper instituted by your Son and ingest tokens that remind us that his body was broken and blood shed for us, that this would be much more than merely a time to remember what Jesus has done for us. Our sincere desire is to commune with God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. By this meal by faith, we celebrate all that Jesus has done to secure our salvation, to rest in his work, and rejoice that his life of perfect obedience and sacrificial death satisfy divine justice and assure us, unworthy and undeserving as we are, that he will come and take us to be at home with you forever. Amen.

LIFT UP YOUR HEADS, YE MIGHTY GATES!

Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates! Behold, the King of glory waits; the King of Kings is drawing near, the Savior of the world is here.

Fling wide the portals of your heart, make it a temple, set apart from earthly use for heav'n's employ, adorned with prayer and love and joy.

Redeemer, come! I open wide my heart to thee; here, Lord, abide! Let me thy inner presence feel; thy grace and love in me reveal.

So come, my Sovereign, enter in! Let new and nobler life begin! Thy Holy Spirit, guide us on, until the glorious crown be won.

JESUS, I AM RESTING, RESTING

Jesus, I am resting, resting in the joy of what thou art; I am finding out the greatness of thy loving heart. Thou hast bid me gaze upon thee, as thy beauty fills my soul, for by thy transforming power, thou hast made me whole.

REFRAIN: Jesus, I am resting, resting in the joy of what thou art; I am finding out the greatness of thy loving heart.

O how great thy loving kindness, vaster, broader than the sea! O how marvelous thy goodness lavished all on me! Yes, I rest in thee, Beloved, know what wealth of grace is thine, know thy certainty of promise and have made it mine. REFRAIN

BEHOLD THE LAMB

Behold the Lamb who bears our sins away, slain for us; and we remember the promise made that all who come in faith find forgiveness at the cross. So, we share in this Bread of Life, and we drink of His sacrifice, as a sign of our bonds of peace around the table of the King.

And so, with thankfulness and faith we rise to respond and to remember our call to follow in the steps of Christ as his body here on earth. As we share in his suffering, we proclaim Christ will come again! And we'll join in the feast of heav'n around the table of the King
