Scripture Lesson John 6:1-71

Sermon Series on John #7 Rev. Dr. H. Andrew Silman

Silent Reflection and Prayer

When we want comfort in sorrow, when we want strength in difficulty, when we want peace in turmoil, when we want help when life has got us down, there is no one so wonderful as Jesus. Then we talk to Him and walk with Him and open our hearts to Him. But when He comes to us with some stern demand for sacrifice, with some challenge to effort, with the offer of some cross, then we will have nothing to do with Him. When we examine our hearts, it may be that we will find that we too love Jesus for what we can get out of Him, and when He comes to us with His great challenges and demands we too grow lukewarm, and even resentful and hostile to this disturbing and demanding Christ. (William Barclay, The Gospel of John, vol 1, 209)

We use the Lord Jesus Christ to justify the American way of life. Do not misunderstand me here. I do not want to downplay America. We have been greatly blessed by God in this land .... Yet it is also true that today there is much that is not only non-Christian but even anti-Christian at all levels of our society and national life. The Lord Jesus Christ cannot be used to justify these things. He does not justify all that big business or labor does. He does not lend his support to Madison Avenue. You cannot quote Jesus in your pursuit of the second car, the second home, the lavish vacation, the indulgence of yourself in leisure time, and many other things that some consider their right. Some of these things may be God’s gift to you. But if you are pursuing these things rather than pursuing God, spiritual growth, and advance in his plan for your life, if you are quoting the Bible as support of your inverted value system, then you are merely doing what the people who were fed by Jesus did. You are using him rather than allowing him to use you and mold you into the kind of person he would have you be. (James M. Boice, John, volume 2, pp. 455-456)

I SING THE ALMIGHTY POWER OF GOD

I sing th'almighty pow'r of God that made the mountains rise, that spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies. I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day: the moon shines full at his command and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the Lord that filled the earth with food; he formed the creatures with his word, and then pronounced them good. Lord, how your wonders are displayed where'er I turn my eye, if I survey the ground I tread or gaze upon the sky!

There's not a plant or flow'r below but makes your glories known; and clouds arise and tempests blow by order from your throne; while all that borrows life from you is ever in your care, and everywhere that man can be you, God, are present there.

BREAK THOU THE BREAD OF LIFE

Break thou the bread of life, dear Lord, to me, as thou didst break the loaves beside the sea; throughout the sacred page I see thee, Lord, my spirit pants for thee, O living Word.

Bless thou the truth, dear Lord, to me, to me, as thou didst bless the bread by Galilee; then shall all bondage cease, all fetters fall, and I shall find my peace, my All in all.

Thou art the Bread of Life, O Lord, to me, the holy Word of truth that saveth me; give me to eat and live with thee above; teach me to love thy truth, for thou art love.

O send thy Spirit Lord, now unto me, that he may touch mine eyes and make me see: show me the truth concealed within thy Word, and in thy Book revealed I see the Lord.

MAN OF SORROWS! WHAT A NAME

Man of Sorrows! what a name for the Son of God, who came ruined sinners to reclaim: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Bearing shame and scoffing rude, in my place condemned he stood, sealed my pardon with his blood: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Guilty vile, and helpless we; spotless Lamb of God was he; full atonement! can it be? Hallelujah! what a Savior

Lifted up was he to die, "It is finished!" was his cry; now in heav'n exalted high: Hallelujah! what a Savior.

When he comes, our glorious King, all his ransomed home to bring, then anew this song we'll sing: Hallelujah! What a Savior!

*...built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets,
Christ Jesus Himself being the chief cornerstone. Ephesians 2:20*
