Call to Worship Psalm 100

PASTOR: Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth! Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! Know that the Lord, he is God! It is he who made us and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him, bless his name!

ALL: For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever; and his faithfulness to all generations.

Congregational Prayer (to be prayed in unison)

Glorious God, I bless you that I know you. I once lived in the world, but was ignorant of its Creator, was partaker of your providences, but did not know the Provider, was blind while enjoying the sunlight, was deaf to all things spiritual, with voices all around me; understood many things, but had no knowledge of your ways, saw the world, but did not see Jesus only. O happy day, when in your love’s sovereignty you looked on me and called me by your grace. Grant that I may always weep to the praise of mercy found, and tell others as long as I live, that you are a sin-pardoning God! Amen.

Scripture Lesson Psalm 1

Sermon Series on the Books of the Bible #18 - Psalms. Rev. Dr. H. Andrew Silman

Silent Reflection on the Lord’s Supper and Prayer

The Psalms can and should be part of the constant practice of the presence of God. Regularly read from beginning to end, they lead us again and again to consider aspects of life and of God’s will that we might not otherwise choose to remember or confront — let alone to embody in our living. Memorized in chunks the Psalms can provide ready response to the pressing realities of our days. When I have wakened in a panic in the darkness of the early morning hours — submerged in fear, self-pity, or self-doubt — the Psalms have often provided the assurance that my anxieties are known by God, who enlightens my dark places. So, I encourage you to make the Psalms your constant companion. Keep a copy at hand, and keep their words in your mind and heart and on your lips as you meet the challenges of your days and nights.” (The NIV Application Commentary, Psalms Vol. 1, 104).

ALL PEOPLE THAT ON EARTH DO DWELL

All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with fear, his praise forthtell, come ye before him and rejoice.

The Lord ye know is God indeed; without our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.

O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his name always, for it is seemly so to do.

For why? The Lord our God is good, his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.

AS THE DEER

As the deer panteth for the water, so my soul longeth after Thee. You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship Thee.

REFRAIN: You alone are my strength, my shield; to you alone may my spirit yield. You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship Thee.

You're my friend, and you are my brother, even though you are a King. I love you more than any other, so much more than anything. REFRAIN

I want you more than gold or silver, only you can satisfy. You alone are the real joy-giver and the apple of my eye.
REFRAIN

THE LORD'S MY SHEPHERD, I'LL NOT WANT

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want; he makes me down to lie in pastures green, he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear none ill, for thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furn-ish-ed in presence of my foes; my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me: and in God's house forever more my dwelling place shall be.

OUR VISION

Cornerstone Presbyterian Church is a vibrant and unified community of Christians and their covenant children whose sole desire is to glorify God in everything. Because God's grace has won our affections we are wholeheartedly committed to the following: the absolute authority of the Bible because it is the very Word of God; enthusiastic and biblical worship; deeds of mercy and sacrificial service; earnest prayer; deepening relationships with one another; and joyful, intentional proclamation of salvation by grace through faith in Jesus Christ to all the world beginning in Brevard. We warmly welcome as members all who trust in Jesus Christ alone for salvation and fully share our vision.

OUR MISSION

The mission of Cornerstone Presbyterian Church is to glorify the triune God by exalting Him and by edifying and equipping our members to share the gospel with everyone in both word and deed beginning in Brevard and to the ends of the earth.
